Cap: Clarke.

Dear Sir

Present

In answer to your letter of yesterday we beg to state, that being entirely unacquainted and unconcerned with any private transaction of Mr. John Black, for which he never received our orders or powers; no claim arising from such transactions can be brought forward against us. — but that we shall be very glad if we can assist you in recovering from Mr. J. Black the amount he appears to be indebted to you.

We are Y^{rs} very respectfully.
