My dear Señorita Palma,

It was very kind of you to send me copies of the new "Ricardo Palma" volumes, which were awaiting me here when Mrs. Leavitt and I returned from our vacation in the North. I appreciate the flattering inscription and your fine courtesy in giving a place to the modest bibliography published by me in the Mercurio Peruano so long ago. I am looking forward with pleasure to reading your book, which I know will be of great interest and, coming from your hands, in an unimitable and charming style.

Mrs. Leavitt and I have not forgotten the pleasant moments spent with you in Madrid and I still cherish the memory of my visits to Miraflores in 1919. We have often wished that we could return.

With many thanks for your kindness and with all good wishes for your continued health and prosperity, I am,

Cordially yours
