

Handwritten text at the top of the page, possibly a date or header.

Vertical handwritten text on the right edge of the page, possibly a marginal note or a list of items.

Main body of handwritten text, including a large section that is partially obscured by a tear in the paper.