Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a letter or document, written on aged, yellowed paper. The text is mirrored across the fold, suggesting it was written on one side and then the paper was folded. The ink is dark brown or black. The text is mostly illegible due to the cursive style and fading, but some words like "L'Amour" and "le monde" are partially visible. There is a large, stylized initial or signature at the bottom of the text block.

Handwritten text at the bottom of the page, possibly a signature or a closing. The text is written in a cursive script and is partially obscured by a horizontal line drawn across the page. The word "L'Amour" is clearly visible in the center, written in a large, decorative font.
