

Letter 8th December 1820

My dear Sir

I have the pleasure to inform you that the proceedings of the Court in the case of the Bank of England have been concluded and the Court has given judgment in favour of the Bank.
The Court has held that the Bank is entitled to the full amount of the debt and that the defendants are liable to pay the same.