the first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the train was the cold air and the silence. I had never before. The station was empty. I looked at my watch.
It was 10:00. I had time. I walked down the platform. The train was still there.
I got on. The
engineer looked at
me. I nodded. The train started. I
looked out the window.
The landscape was beautiful. I had never before. I smiled. I was home.
